17

Side Leg:

Sink the triangle to the center

18

Valley fold as far to the right as possible

19

Mountain fold and unfold. The creases will intersect at the crease made in step 16

20

Valley fold and unfold, bisecting the angle formed by the creases in step 16 and 19

21

Repeat steps 17-20

22

23

Valley fold the center corner to the right corner. This will pull paper from the left. Squash it flat. The vertical line A will lie along edge B. Edge C will also lie on B.

24

Repeat steps 22 and 23 on the left side.

25

- a: Pleat along creases made in steps 16, 19, and 20.
 b: This will cause the side legs to swing downward 60 degrees.
 c: The top colored part will collapse

An intermediate view: The white body and legs should lie flat. The colored top will be sticking out. Fold it down. The model will almost lie flat

Fold sides up perpendicular to page.

Mountain fold the side legs so that the ends will lay flush on a surface. Then Unfold.

Using the crease you just made, fold tip up, while opening out the sides.

Repeat steps 32 - 34 on other leg...

Mountain fold tip of the leg.
Repeat behind

Curve the body to give R2-D2 a more rounded, trash can feel
